Carl Jeger has instituted proceedings in the District Supreme Court against John A. McCarthy to compel the specific performance of an alleged contract. The complainant says that he bargained with Thomas J. Fisher, agent of the defendant, to purchase premises 1245 and 1247 Twenty-fifth Street for $2,400, subject to the owner's approval. On September 12, 1904, Fisher was informed by Mr. Fisher that his proposal had been accepted. He now says Mr. McCarthy refuses to make a transfer of the property to him. Lambert & Baker are named as counsel for the Many faces are marred by so-called beauty nostrums on the market. Beauty culture is a science. Birthmarks, scars and other facial blemishes can be obliterated. The French schools of beauty culture are the only ones in the world, and from all parts of the continent and trans-continent women and men go to Paris to have their faces treated and return home marvelously transformed. Dr. Crisition will lecture on beauty and facial blemish, at the Lafayette Opera House tomorrow afternoon. The lecture is free and for women only. Lecture commences sharp at 2 o'clock at the Lafayette Opera House.

TWO SURGEONS RESIGN.
Assistant Surgeons Milton E. Lande and George H. Richardson have resigned from the army.

Peculiar Entries in Expense Account Which May Be Reckoned for in Several Different Ways.

That the administration of the affairs of a municipality is a complicated proceeding, and that as a composite whole it consists of many unique but essential features, is evidenced by the schedule of contingent expense items for the last fiscal year, just submitted to Congress by the District Commissioners.

For instance, on September 29, 1932, the following item appears: "Forage for harbormaster, $37.66." This is the first inkling the general public has had that Harbormaster Sutton subsists on a hay diet, but as this is the only item of its kind during the entire year, it would seem that the harbormaster's board bill

Another entry, which Dr. Woodward will have some difficulty in explaining to the Appropriations Committee in Congress, appears February 10, 1968, as follows: "Rubber boots for Health Office, $2.00." The entry is obscure in that no reaction is made of the size of the boots.

no mention is made of the size of the boots the Health Office wears. Furthermore, it can be shown that the Health Office has not left the District Building for many years, and consequently could not have worn rubber boots. It is

On June 18, 1963, is recorded "Door Bolts, 66." As this date is immediately after the door bolts were allegedly defalcated of $72,000, it looks as if the Commissioners had learned that the horse had gone. Perhaps the bolts were placed on the door of the stable after the information from getting back into the District

JANUARY CLEARING SALE

LOGICALLY The Season of Great Bargains; ACTUALLY The Time of Greatest BARGAINS. MANY of the items here are entirely new. On these lots, as well as those previously advertised, prices hold good as long as lots last.

Coats and Jackets

WE would suggest in connection with these very unusual offerings that many of them are short effects—and you know there never was a season when the most convenient coat was not largely worn, regardless of the vagaries of fashion. There's safety in buying the latest styles of this year. They'll be good for first wear at the beginning of fall, as now.

We have about thirty of the $10 and $12.50 short satin lined kersey jackets left. Several of these are choice. $5.00

Also a lot of the high-grade Kersey cloth jackets, with guaranteed satin lining, reduced from $12.50 to $7.95 and $13.50 to $10.00

One of the very newest offerings of this clearance sale is the $10 lot. These are fine cloth in both medium and three-quarter lengths. Some have collars, others are in smart collarless styles, some have cape tops. The shades are tan, castor, and black. These are reduced from $15, $10.50, and $18.50 to $10.00

Ten black silk velvet blouse jackets are reduced from $25.00 to just $12.50

One lot of velvet blouse jackets, the finest shown this season are reduced from $35, $40, and $25.00
